

Mememes world

(Non technical event)

It is a quiz based upon the meme content in which the participant needs to guess and create meme in order to bring out their creativity.

It is a solo competition.

This event consists of 2 rounds:-

➤ Pen paper test:

- There will be questions of multiple choice, fill in the blanks and complete the meme based upon the latest scenarios and content.
- Top 10 participants will be selected for the next round.
- Time limit is 45 min which include one paper with two half: the first half contains the guessing part (if the answer is correct then 1 point is given and no negative marking) and second half is the creation of meme (out of 5 points, marks will be given upon their creativity level).

➤ Visual round through projector:

- It will be rapid fire round where the images will be displayed and they need to answer that question.

- Winner and runner-up will be provided with awesome goodies

CERTIFICATES will be provided to all the participants.
